Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Rose teaches all the limitations of Claims 1-6. For example, Rose discloses a system for electronic fashion shopping (please see at least abstract; Fig. 1; Fig. 6 (601-606); col. 1, line 5 through col. 2, line 35). Rose further discloses:

interactive TV (see at least col. 1, lines 50-56; col. 2, lines 63 through col. 3, line 17).

- Image superimposing means for processing the image of a user: user submits digital photograph of face; digital image is mapped for two-dimensional or three-dimensional views; selected clothing applied using colors of garments (see at least Fig. 3 (38-44); col. 6, line 65 through col. 7, line 23).
- Scale: system generates a virtual mannequin of the customer's body including a digitized photograph of her face which shows the customer how her selected fashion will look (please note examiner's interpretation: image and fashion are to scale with body type) (see at least Fig. 4 (46); col. 7, lines 58-62).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure:
